

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

The vacation was exciting! Here's what happened ...

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What's the most exciting thing that happened to you on a vacation?
- Did you ever have an accident when you were on a vacation?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about injuries and accidents.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Sally tells her mother about the time she was almost in an accident in Egypt. It was a close call!

* "A close call" is a narrow escape from a dangerous situation.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally's Mom: So, tell me more about your trip to Egypt! Did you enjoy yourself?
Sally: For sure! Cairo is a fascinating city. The people on the street were very nice. The traffic was crazy though.
Sally's Mom: How were the drivers?
Sally: They were okay, but my tour guide almost ran someone over when we were driving to the pyramids! He braked just in time.
Sally's Mom: Oh no! Did anyone get injured?
Sally: Not seriously, thank goodness! I was wearing my seatbelt when it happened. I just had whiplash for a few days after. And the tour guide bumped his head on the windscreen!
Sally's Mom: Did it hurt?
Sally: Not as much as Vanessa's ankle at the Grand Canyon.
Sally's Mom: What happened?
Sally: She sprained her ankle badly when we were hiking by ourselves. She was looking at the map and she stepped into a hole!
Sally's Mom: Ouch! At least it wasn't life-threatening!
Sally: Yes. Always look on the bright side.

Let's Practice!

Holidays can be dangerous! Read Sally's blog about her adventures in Egypt and at the Grand Canyon.

Instructions: Read the text. Underline all the sentences about injuries and accidents.

Hey guys,

Cairo was an amazing city. The people are so nice! The traffic is crazy though! My driver almost ran someone over one day. Luckily for him, no one got seriously injured. I was wearing my seatbelt when it happened. I just had whiplash for a few days, nothing life-threatening! The driver bumped his head on the windscreen.

Did you know what happened to Vanessa? She sprained her ankle when we were at the Grand Canyon! Vanessa needs to be more careful sometimes.

Let's Practice!

What happened to Sally and Vanessa during their holidays?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

1. a / map / when / . / Vanessa / into / the / reading / was / she / hole / stepped

2. badly / when / her / was / hiking / sprained / Sally / ankle / . / with / she / She

3. they / driver / Pyramids / the / ran / was / driving / someone / almost / to / over /
Her / ! / when

4. it / was / her / wearing / . / when / happened / seatbelt / She

Extension Activity

You'll never believe what happened when I was on vacation!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think about an event that happened the last time you were on vacation.
- What happened? Was it funny? Scary? Was it an accident?
- Write a blog entry or an e-mail to a friend (8-10 lines).
- Describe the event. Remember to use the Past Continuous and Past Simple tenses.
- Read your story aloud to your partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about an event that happened to me.

☐ ☐

I describe the event.

☐ ☐

I write about what I was doing when something happened.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to run someone over (verb): to knock someone down with a vehicle
e.g. We almost ran someone over on our way to the pyramids!
- to sprain (verb): to twist and injure a joint in your body
e.g. I stepped into a hole and sprained my ankle
- ankle (noun): the part of the foot that connects to the leg
e.g. When you hurt your ankle, it is difficult to walk.
- whiplash (noun): an injury caused by a sudden jerk to the head, typically in a car accident
e.g. I didn't bump my head, but I had whiplash for a few days.
- injured (adjective): harmed; suffering from an injury
e.g. We had an accident but no one got injured.
- seriously (adverb): badly; not lightly
e.g. Was anyone seriously injured?
- life-threatening (adjective): serious with the possibility of death as an outcome
e.g. Fortunately for Andrew, his injuries weren't life-threatening!

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

For Simple Past, regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb "ing" to verbs.

You use Past Continuous verbs to describe a longer action that is interrupted by a shorter action.

You use Simple Past verbs to describe the shorter action.

Present	Past	Past Continuous
brake	braked	was/were braking
bump	bumped	was/were bumping
wear	wore	was/were wearing
run	ran	was/were running
step	stepped	was/were stepping
drive	drove	was/were driving
think	thought	was/were thinking

Examples:

• Ann: Did you bump your head in the accident?

Bob: No. I was wearing my seatbelt when it happened.

