Let's Start!

Traveling is fun ... unless you get sick!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you get sick when you travel by plane? By car?
- What do you do to avoid being sick?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about common health problems.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Sally the jet-setter* may be suffering from motion sickness. That's unlucky!

* A "jet-setter" is a rich, fashionable person who travels a lot.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hey there! How's it going?
Sally: I feel under the weather. Something didn't agree with me on the plane and now I feel horrible.
Vanessa: I'm sorry, babe. Maybe you are just suffering from motion sickness.
Sally: Do you think so? I traveled so much in the past year! I never felt airsick in Europe or in China!
Vanessa: You never know. For example, I found out that I get carsick! I was driving around town the other day, when my stomach suddenly started to hurt. I had to stop the car!
Sally: That's not cool!
Vanessa: It's alright ... There are drugs for motion sickness, but they make you sleepy.
Sally: Hey! That's an awesome side effect! I am so sleep-deprived right now!
Vanessa: Did you try counting sheep?
Sally: It didn't work. I counted cats instead.
Vanessa: You and your cats ... Was that better?
Sally: Not really ... I was watching cat videos at 3 a.m. last night when I finally closed my eyes!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs.

You use Past Continuous verbs to describe a longer action that is interrupted by a shorter action.

You use Simple Past verbs to describe the shorter action.

| Present | Past     | Past Continuous    |
|---------|----------|--------------------|
| agree   | agreed   | was/were agreeing  |
| travel  | traveled | was/were traveling |
| feel    | felt     | was/were feeling   |
| find    | found    | was/were finding   |
| start   | started  | was/were starting  |
| count   | counted  | was/were counting  |
| watch   | watched  | was/were watching  |

Examples:

• Ann: I was driving around town this morning when my stomach started to hurt.

Bob: Something didn't agree with you, I guess.

Learning Points

Common Health Problems

When you are ill, you use expressions like I feel sick ... or I have a/an ... to describe the health problem.

You ask How's it going? or What's wrong? if you want to know about someone's health problems.

These are some common problems related to traveling:

- motion sickness
- airsickness
- carsickness
- jet lag
- sleep deprivation

Examples:

• Ann: How's it going?

Bob: I feel under the weather.

Ann: What's wrong?

Bob: I suffer from motion sickness. My stomach hurts.
