Let's Start!

Every holiday has a story!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you buy a lot of souvenirs when you travel to a new place?
- Do you collect a particular kind of souvenir?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things to do on a trip.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

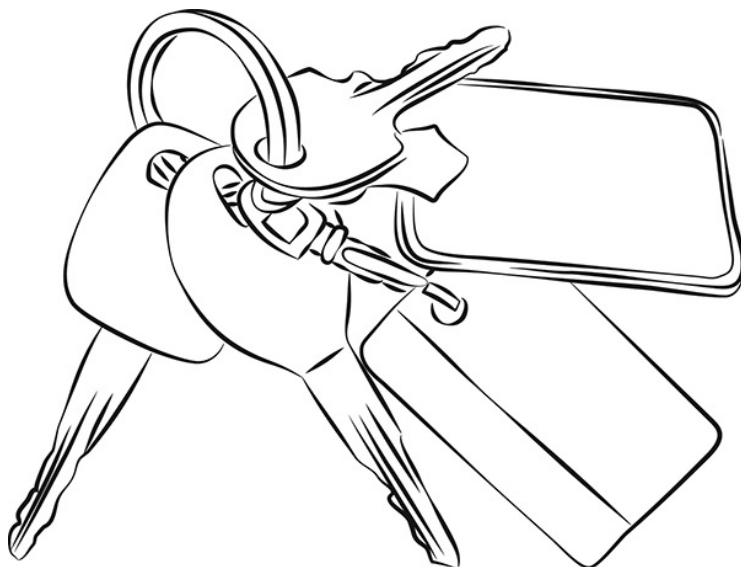

Let's Explore!

Sally shows her mother a nice memento from Egypt.

* A "memento" is a souvenir.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally's Mom: That's a nice keychain! Where did you get it?

Sally: I bought it in a souvenir shop near the pyramids.

Sally's Mom: Those guys must be millionaires with all the visitors every day!

Sally: Yeah, I guess ... The shop was a bit of a tourist trap, but I couldn't resist! Giza is steeped in history!

Sally's Mom: Did you haggle over the price of that keychain?!

Sally: Not at first. I was planning to pay the full price when the tour guide stopped me.

Sally's Mom: Was the shop owner trying to overcharge you?

Sally: I'm not sure ... I didn't understand what they were saying!

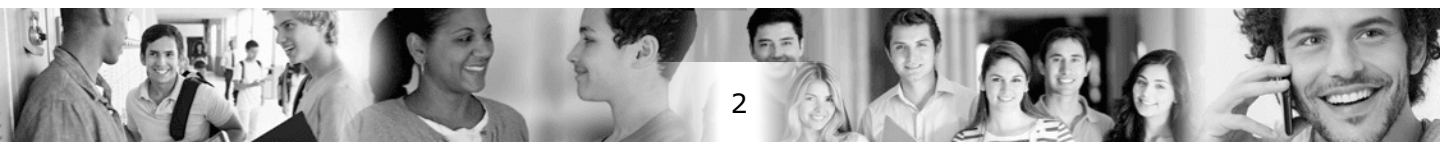

Sally's Mom: How did it go in the end?

Sally: Very well I suppose! They smiled and shook hands!

Sally's Mom: Did the owner give you a discount?

Sally: He was going to, but gave me a box of free dates instead! They're a delicacy!

Sally's Mom: I still think he overcharged you ...

Let's Practice!

Sally talks about her beautiful keychain!

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. I was looking at the pyramids when I saw this beautiful keychain!
2. I was planning to pay the full price when the tour guide stopped me.
3. He thought the shop owner was trying to overcharge me.
4. I didn't understand what they were saying!
5. The owner was going to give me a discount, but he gave me a box of free dates instead!

Let's Practice!

Sally's mother is excited to hear about her daughter's adventures!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word.

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs.

Present	Past	Past Continuous
try	tried	was/were trying
overcharge	overcharged	was/were overcharging
say	said	was/were saying
shake	shook	was/were shaking
give	gave	was/were giving
go	went	was/were going
buy	bought	was/were buying

Examples:

- Ann: I was going to pay the full price when the guide stopped me.
- Bob: I think the shop owner was trying to overcharge you.
