Let's Start!

Something doesn't feel right ... What seems to be the problem?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Are you allergic to a certain kind of food?
- What do you do when you feel sick?
Call a doctor? Go to bed?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about common health problems.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

What's bugging Sally?

* Something is "bugging" you when you are bothered by something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Mum? I don't feel too good.
- Sally's Mom: What's wrong, sweetie?
- Sally: I'm not sure. My throat feels really swollen and inflamed.
- Sally's Mom: Does your head hurt?
- Sally: My head feels fine now, but my stomach doesn't. I also have heartburn.
- Sally's Mom: Hmm ... What did you eat this morning?
- Sally: I had my usual breakfast.
- Sally's Mom: Maybe you just have a bit of indigestion.
- Sally: No ... I think I ate something bad in Cairo.
- Sally's Mom: Are you sure?
- Sally: Yes. I ate at a weird falafel place while we were visiting the market.
- Sally's Mom: That was a few days ago! Were you feeling sick when you took the plane?
- Sally: I guess not ...
- Sally's Mom: I bet you caught a bug from one of the passengers!
- Sally: What about the flight attendants? They should be sick all the time!
- Sally's Mom: Sweetie, I think they are immune to everything, including jet lag!

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb "ing" to verbs.

You use Past Continuous verbs to describe a longer action that is interrupted by a shorter action.

You use Simple Past verbs to describe the shorter action.

Present	Past	Past Continuous
have	had	was/were having
eat	ate	was/were eating
visit	visited	was/were visiting
feel	felt	was/were feeling
catch	caught	was/were catching
hurt	hurt	was/were hurting

Examples:

• Ann: I had indigestion last night. My stomach hurt really badly! I ate at a weird falafel place when we were visiting the market.

Bob: Me too! I think we ate something bad while we were visiting the market.
