

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Sally gets some travel advice in Cairo.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can write a small pamphlet.
- I can write about common health problems.
- I can give advice.

Ask your partner:

- What does being jet-lagged mean?
- What should you do to prevent jet lag?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Sally get some advice at the airport in Cairo. How does she say thank you in Arabic?

* A language spoken in some North African and Western Asian countries.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Excuse me, could I get some advice?
Tom: Sure, what can I help you with?
Sally: I am on the next flight to the States. I am a little concerned about jet lag.
Tom: We have some pamphlets here on travel and your health. Why don't you take one of these?
Sally: Oh wonderful, thanks.
Tom: The pamphlet includes some helpful tips and ideas.
Sally: Like what?
Tom: Well, you should drink plenty of fluids before and while you are in the air.
Sally: Yes, you don't want to get dehydrated.
Tom: No, and it's a good idea to move around as much as you can during the flight.
Sally: What do you suggest?
Tom: Walking up and down the aisle and doing some stretches at the back of the plane can help with your circulation.
Sally: Those seats on the airplane are so small and cramped!
Tom: Yes, try to get some rest on the flight so you aren't too tired when you arrive at your destination.
Sally: Oh, I can hear them calling my flight number. Thanks for the pamphlet.
Tom: Safe travels.
Sally: Shokran!

Let's Practice!

Can you give me some health advice?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: aisles, circulation, dehydrated, fluids, move around, pamphlets.

1. We have some _____ here on travel and your health.
2. Yes, you don't want to get _____.
3. Walking up and down the _____ can help.
4. Doing some stretches at the back of the plane can help with your _____.
5. It is important to drink plenty of _____ before and while you are in the air.
6. It's a good idea to _____ as much as you can during the flight.

Let's Practice!

What do you suggest?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: advice, wonderful, Why don't, suggest, help, stretches, Sure.

Sally: Excuse me, could I get some _____?

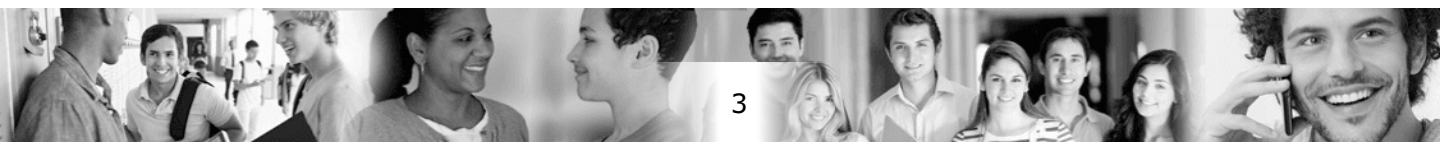

Airport Cashier: _____, what can I you with?

Airport Cashier: We have some pamphlets here on travel and your health. _____ you take one of these?

Sally: Oh _____, thanks.

Sally: What do you _____?

Airport Cashier: Walking up and down the aisles and doing some _____ at the back of the plane can help with your circulation.

Extension Activity

Excuse me, could I get some advice?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Find 3 health pamphlets online or in your neighborhood in English.
- Read the pamphlets.
- Write down notes about the pamphlets like definition, symptoms and treatment.
- Choose one pamphlet and give a presentation to a partner on the information.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I find three health pamphlets online or in my area.

☐ ☐

I write notes on health information.

☐ ☐

I give a presentation on the information in a health pamphlet.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- jet lag (noun): a tired and unpleasant feeling that you sometimes get when you travel by airplane
e.g. I suffered terrible jet lag after my flight from Asia.
- fluid (noun): a liquid substance
e.g. Make sure you drink plenty of fluids.
- dehydrated (adjective): to lose too much water
e.g. Flying can make you dehydrated.
- circulation (noun): the movement of blood through the body
e.g. You need to maintain good blood circulation.
- cramped (adjective): not having enough space
e.g. The seats are so cramped.
- stretch (noun): the act of stretching your body
e.g. Doing leg stretches at the back of the plane can help.
- aisle (noun): a passage between seats to walk
e.g. Walking up and down the aisle is a good idea.
- memory (noun): the ability to recall the past
e.g. Jet lag can affect your memory.

Learning Points

What is a Pamphlet?

Pamphlets should be used when you want to give people more information than you can put on a poster.

Pamphlets can

- explain an issue to the community like health and wellness
- inform people of their rights
- win support for a cause

Pamphlets are a simple way of providing information.

Examples:

- Health pamphlet
- Educational pamphlet
- Advertising pamphlet

Requesting and Giving Advice

When you ask for and give advice, you often use modal verbs.

Asking for Advice	Giving Advice
What do you think I should do?	What about ... ?
What should I do?	Why don't you ... ?
What do you suggest?	One option is to ...
Do you think I should ...	You should ...

Examples:

- Simon: What do you suggest for jet lag?
- Laura: Drink lots of water. You don't want to get dehydrated.

